AO 472 (Rev. 3/86) Order of Detention Pending Trial

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
	Dist	trict of		Delaware
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
	V.  Kevin Pearsall  Defendant		RDER OF DET	S-JJF
	cordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a dete of the defendant pending trial in this case.	ention heari	ing has been held. I co	onclude that the following facts require the
☐ (1)	Part I—Fi The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a cir a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life impris an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of	C. § 3142( reumstance sonment or	(f)(1) and has been congiving rise to federal death.	jurisdiction had existed that is
(3)	a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses.  The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense.  A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the date of conviction release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1).  Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
Alternative Findings (A)  (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in  under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c).  The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
Alternative Findings (B)

Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence a preponderance of the evidence: As a result of a hearing on November 1, 2006, the court found that defendant was a danger to the community and ordered detention on the following bases:
2. Defender for about prison and presender no information 3. Defender 2000. He	vidence against defendant was substantial and the nature of the dant's work history shows that he was employed by Alpine con 3 years. He worked for Alpine for about 4 months as a brickle of felt that he could return to that address. He presently does not ently does not contribute to their support. For one child, he has nation regarding substance abuse. dant's criminal history reveals a conviction for possession with a was found VOP in March 2001, May 2001, June 2001, July 2 a juvenile in 1998 and 1996 respectively, he was found guilty	astruction as ayer. He has 4 red support and is in a eliver a schedule I not ovember 2001 for whi	yed for about 1 month since his incarceration a family friend since his release from 4 children from three separate relationships arrears. On advice of counsel, he provided in-narcotic controlled substance in April ich he received a two year term of imprison.

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
